VOLUNTEER

at an Illinois Veterans' Home

Serve Those Who Have Served

Volunteering at one of Illinois' Veterans' Homes - Anna, Chicago, LaSalle, Manteno, and Quincy - is rewarding and meaningful. Volunteers enrich the lives of veterans and contribute to our mission of caring for the whole person - mind, body, and spirit. The connections between volunteers and veterans elevate the veterans well-being and builds strong and lasting friendships.

Opportunities include:

- In-house Transportation (church services, activities, barber/beauty appointments)
- Crafts (woodworking/weaving, knitting)
- Gardening
- Fishing
- Music (instrument/singing)
- Parties (holiday/seasonal/birthday)
- Events (remembrance days, parties, etc)
- Games (cards/board games/bingo)
- Coffee and meal visits
- Walks
- Assisting with incoming donations

Who may volunteer in an Illinois Veterans' Home?

The Homes welcome volunteers who are eager to experience the joy of serving those who have served.

School groups including high school, and college are also welcome to apply.
